

Insulet Celebrates New Global Headquarters and U.S. Manufacturing Facility in Acton, MA

May 2, 2019

Over $200 Million Investment in Massachusetts Creates Hundreds of Local Manufacturing Jobs and a Launchpad for New Product Innovation

ACTON, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 2, 2019-- Insulet Corporation (NASDAQ: PODD) (Insulet), the global leader in tubeless insulin pump technology with its Omnipod® Insulin Management System, will host a ribbon cutting ceremony today to celebrate the official grand opening of the Company's new global headquarters and U.S. manufacturing facility in Acton, Massachusetts.

The new facility, located on a 26-acre site, which represents an over $200 million investment in Massachusetts, has already created hundreds of local jobs, and provides additional manufacturing capabilities closer to Insulet's large and growing U.S. customer base. The new U.S. manufacturing operation is also expected to drive operating efficiencies and increase productivity. The Company recently began production.

Massachusetts Governor, Charlie Baker, will join Insulet speakers Shacey Petrovic, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Chuck Alpuche, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, to commemorate the ribbon cutting ceremony. Other special guests include: Massachusetts State Senator Jamie Eldridge; Travis McCready, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Massachusetts Life Sciences Center; dignitaries from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and members of Insulet's loyal Podder community.

"As a global hub for innovation and research, Massachusetts is well-positioned to expand its advanced manufacturing footprint," said Governor Charlie Baker. "Our Administration has prioritized efforts to create an environment that supports the growth of companies like Insulet, and we are glad to see them open this new facility and create jobs here in the Commonwealth."

"We are honored to call Massachusetts our home and are truly grateful for the strong partnership with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and town of Acton. They have been tremendous supporters of this monumental milestone for Insulet," said Shacey Petrovic, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Our new global headquarters and U.S. manufacturing facility is a launchpad for continued growth and exciting innovation and we're proud to be contributing to the economy by creating hundreds of local jobs."
